MAX WINTER

President

Max Winter moved to the forefront of the Minnesota Vikings operation in his 10th year as president of the club . . . willingly and confidently, but with some reservations. Those reservations, however, had nothing to do with his abilities: Max Winter had spent much of his life as a sports executive.

"It was just that I had no intention, at this stage of the game, of going back to work," Winter said with a smile. "But, also, I felt very strongly that ownership should be involved in management in the National Football League. That's not just the feeling here; it's the feeling around the league."

Winter took over active management of the club in the spring of 1975. "I'd rather be on the golf course," he said, smiling again. "But on the other hand there is a tremendous amount of satisfaction in this. You know, this sort of thing was my bag before."

To say the least.

Max Winter brought the first big league team to the Twin Cities, building the Minneapolis Lakers into one of the more solid and successful franchises in sports history, winning five championships in seven years.

It was when he still was president and general manager of the Lakers, in 1955, that Winter saw an NFL game in Chicago. He followed up almost immediately, writing to the NFL for a franchise. And he kept at it, with the same persistence that made him successful as owner of the Lakers, as a boxing promoter, as a restaurant operator.

Finally, it came to pass. In 1960, a franchise was awarded to Winter and his group (at that time Bill Boyer and H.P. Skoglund) for the 1961 season. And thus a new vista opened for Max Winter, but still in the area of sports that he had enjoyed for so many years.

Winter was born in the Austrian village of Mahrishostrau and was a gymnast and ice skater. His family emigrated to the United States in 1913 and settled in Minneapolis.

Max attended North High School in Minneapolis, graduating in 1922 after playing football and captaining the basketball team. His basketball talents won him a scholarship at Hamline University in St. Paul.

From college he went on to become a fight manager, a fight promoter (including handling bouts for Jack Dempsey), a co-owner of the 620 Club restaurant. He also promoted Harlem Globe Trotter games and then graduated to the Lakers.

One of the players he signed was a University of Minnesota all-around athlete named Bud Grant.

"That was in 1949," Winter said. "It was Bud's first job in pro sports. He also was my No. 1 choice for the first coach of the Vikings. And he certainly was my No. 1 choice in 1967, when we finally hired him."

Winter's Lakers won world championships both years Grant was with the team. And the Winter-Grant Viking alliance hasn't done badly, either — the team has become a virtual playoff regular and the organization is recognized as one of the best-run franchises in the NFL.

Winter and his wife, Helen, have three daughters, Mrs. Sue Diamond, Mrs. Nancy Ditlove and Mrs. Diane Cohen, and eight grandchildren.

MIKE LYNN

Vice President-General Manager

Mike Lynn became general manager of the Vikings in 1975 after a year as assistant to the president. Typical of the job, his duties are multi-faceted — but one of his biggest triumphs has to be the recent state legislative decision that authorizes the construction of a new stadium.

Lynn joined the Vikings during one of pro football's most unsettled periods — with no collective bargaining agreement — and helped the club weather that storm without any loss of the stability that has characterized the organization.

It also was during that time that the stadium issue reached the Legislature for the first time and Lynn channeled a large portion of his energies into that project. He has involved himself in all phases of the Vikings operation, including scouting, working with the draft, trades, etc. During his two years as general manager, the team has won 23, lost 4 and tied one.

Lynn first became involved with the National Football League in 1965 when he formed a group that sought an NFL franchise for Memphis, Tenn. He formed a group to make the purchase, the newly constructed stadium was ready and he was to serve as either president or managing general partner.

But Memphis, chose, instead to cast its lot with the World Football League and Lynn was hired by Vikings president Max Winter from among 50 applicants.

Lynn was born in Scranton, Pa., on May 18, 1936. At age 17, while attending Morris Hills Regional High School in New Jersey, Lynn became the youngest manager of a theater in the history of the Walter Reade chain of theaters. He spent three years with the Army Security Agency — one year in Korea — and ran a chain of movie theaters in Delaware and Maryland after he was discharged.

In 1963, at the age of 27, Lynn became general manager of a department store in East St. Louis — becoming, according to a national trade publication, the youngest man of that title working for a store that did over $10 million of business annually. In 1964 he became a group executive of Dixiemart-Corondolet in Memphis, a chain of stores that did $50 million in business annually.

In 1965 Memphis completed a 50,000-seat stadium and Mike Lynn first became interested in an NFL franchise. That interest culminated in Mid-South Sports, Inc., which sponsored eight NFL pre-season games, including a Vikings-St. Louis game in 1969. He founded the Chamber of Commerce Sports Committee and was chairman of the Mayor's NFL Committee, representing the city in all negotiations with the NFL. At the same time, he served as chief executive officer of the Memphis ABA team.

Lynn attended Pace University in New York City and is married and the father of three children — Louisa, 13; Robert, 12, and Michael IV, 8. His wife, Jorja, is the former Miss Hospitality for the State of Mississippi. The family, including his mother, live in a Minneapolis suburb.

H. Peterson

J. Reichow

F. Gilliam

HARLEY PETERSON

Coordinator-Administration

Harley Peterson joined the Vikings as business manager in January 1970, holding that title until being named coordinator-administration in 1975.

He was born and raised in Mankato, Minn., and has a degree in business administration from Mankato State College — the school where the Vikings hold their training camp. He lettered in baseball as a shortstop at Mankato State.

After graduating from college, Peterson joined Arthur Andersen & Co., an accounting firm, and was with the organization from 1960 to 1970 with the exception of two years spent in the Army.

He was tax manager at Arthur Andersen at the time he left to join the Vikings.

Harley and his wife, Barb, have two children — Wendy and Tom.

JERRY REICHOW

Coordinator-Football Operations

Jerry Reichow was director of player personnel for the Vikings for nine years until being named coordinator-football operations in 1975.

Reichow was an All-Big Ten quarterback at Iowa and started his pro football career at Detroit. He played on the Philadelphia Eagles' 1960 championship team, quarterbacked by Norm Van Brocklin. When Van Brocklin became Viking coach in 1961, he engineered a trade that brought Reichow to the Vikings.

Reichow played wide receiver and tight end for the Vikings from 1961 until his retirement as a player in 1964. He holds the Vikings record for touchdown pass receptions in a season with 11 in 1961 and led the club in receptions in 1961 and 1962.

Reichow is a native of Decorah, Iowa, and resides in Plymouth, Minn. He has three children — Alan, Lori and Jimmie.

FRANK GILLIAM

Director of Player Personnel

Frank Gilliam joined the Vikings in 1970 as scouting director and was named director of player personnel in 1975.

Gilliam played college football at the University of Iowa, where he was a teammate of Jerry Reichow's and an All-Big Ten end in 1956.

He played pro football with Winnipeg and Vancouver of the Canadian Football League and was an assistant coach at Iowa from 1966-1970.

Gilliam's brother, Joe, is assistant head coach at Tennessee State University.

He is a native of Steubenville, Ohio, and resides in Bloomington, Minn. Frank and his wife, Velma, have three children — Frank Jr., Gayle and Michelle.

THE DIRECTORS

Max Winter

H.P. Skoglund

The Board of Directors of the Minnesota Vikings is made up of Max Winter, H.P. Skoglund, Jack Steele, Mrs. Ole Haugsrud and Sheldon Kaplan.

Max Winter, Viking President, has been with the team from its inception and oversees the day-by-day operation. He also is chairman of the board of his own business, Viking Enterprises.

H.P. Skoglund, Chairman of the Board and Treasurer, is in investments.

Jack Steele, representing the estate of his father-in-law, the late Bill Boyer, is Vice President of Bill Boyer Ford.

Mrs. Haugsrud's late husband, Ole, formerly owned and operated the Duluth Eskimos, one of the first pro football teams.

Sheldon Kaplan is the Vikings' attorney and is a partner in the law firm of Maslon, Kaplan, Edelman, Borman, Brand and McNulty.

PLAYING CAREER

COLLEGE: Won nine varsity letters — four in football, three in basketball and two in baseball — at the University of Minnesota from 1946-1949. Went to Minnesota after being in the Navy for a year. Played football and basketball at Great Lakes Naval Training Center where his coaches included Paul Brown (football) and Weeb Ewbank (basketball). At Minnesota he was named All-Big Ten twice in football, as an end.

PRO: Played basketball with the Minneapolis Lakers for two seasons (1949-50 and 1950-51), when they were World Champions. Finding, at 6-foot-3, he was one of "those little forwards" he signed with the Philadelphia Eagles, which had drafted him No. 1 in 1950. As a rookie he started as a defensive end. In his second season he moved to offense and was the No. 2-ranking receiver in the NFL with 56 catches. His first pass reception as a pro was good for 84 yards and a touchdown against Pittsburgh. After contractual difficulties with the Eagles, Grant signed with Winnipeg of the Canadian League and played four seasons as a wide receiver (216 receptions) and cornerback (holds record of five interceptions in one game). Led the league in receptions three times.

COACHING CAREER

PRO: Grant, at age 29, was named head coach at Winnipeg of the Canadian Football League after the 1956 season — replacing Allie Sherman. In 20 years as a professional coach Grant has a record of 200 victories, 94 defeats and 6 ties. His 11 wins in 1976 brought him to the 200 mark for an average of 10 a year. In 10 seasons, Grant's Winnipeg teams had a 102-56-2 regular-season record. In playoff competition, his teams won 20, lost 10 and tied one . . . winning five Western Conference titles and four Grey Cup championships. He became head coach of the Vikings in 1967 and has a 98-38-4 NFL record. His victory percentage of .714 is fourth-best in NFL history — behind only John Madden (.772), Don Shula (.747) and Vince Lombardi (.728). His Vikings teams have won eight Central Division championships in ten years — plus one NFL Western Conference title, one NFL championship and three NFC titles. His Vikings teams have the best record of any NFL team in the 1970s — 75-22-1 (a .770 winning percentage).

PERSONAL

Grant is an avid hunter, fisherman and naturalist . . . spending as much free time as possible at the family lake home in northern Wisconsin. The home is on property he bought with his mustering out pay from the service and where his first lodging was a tent. Bud and his wife, Pat, have six children and live in Bloomington, Minn.

THE VETERANS

ALLEN, NATE
Cornerback

Texas Southern
Ht: 5-11, Wt: 175

Born: 5-13-48
7th Year (T-76)

PRO: Was acquired from San Francisco for a 1978 sixth-round draft choice in training camp last season and moved in as starting right cornerback for the injured Bobby Bryant. Started four pre-season and 11 regular-season games until suffering a sprained ankle and being replaced by Bryant. Blocked two field goals and one conversion in regular and post-season play. Both field goal blocks were against the Rams — saving an overtime tie in the regular season and knocking down an attempt in the NFC championship game that Bryant picked up and ran in for a touchdown. His three pass interceptions (ranking second on the club) were a career high. Caused two fumbles and made 66 tackles. Also a key man on the punt and kickoff teams. Drafted by Kansas City on the 11th round in 1971 and became a starter at left cornerback in 1973. Acquired by the 49ers in 1975.

COLLEGE: Named All-Southwestern Athletic Conference and All-American as a cornerback at Texas Southern in 1970. Named his team's outstanding defensive back in 1969 and 1970.

PERSONAL: Born in Georgetown, S.C. and lived in Edina, Minn. most of the off-season. He is single.

BEAMON, AUTRY
Safety

East Texas State
Ht: 6-1, Wt: 190

Born: 11-11-53
3rd Year (D12-75)

PRO: Had big day against the Rams in the regular season, recovering a fumble in the end zone to stop one drive and then intercepting a pass at the three-yard line in the final 10 seconds of the fourth quarter and returning it 41 yards. Played in every game — regular season and post-season — mostly on special teams. Was one of return-men in Vikings' three-deep-men punt receiving formation. Has played cornerback and both safety positions.

COLLEGE: Was named to All-Lone Star Conference team as a freshman, sophomore, junior and senior. Intercepted eight passes as a senior, totaling 32 in his career. Was red-shirted as a 16-year-old freshman. Has a degree in business administration.

CLABO, NEIL Punter

Tennessee
Ht: 6-0, Wt: 200

Born: 11-18-52
3rd Year (D10-75)

PRO: After a fast start (42-yard average in six games), he hit a slump at mid-season that dropped his average for the season below 40 yards. Best day was when he kicked six times for a 46-yard average in the divisional playoff game against Washington. Had five kicks that were downed and went out of bounds inside the 20 but 10 more caromed into the end zone. Didn't have to punt at all against Detroit — a first for a Viking punter. Didn't have a punt blocked all season.

COLLEGE: Averaged 43.1 yards per punt in his senior season, ranking fourth in the NCAA. Was named All-Southeast Conference that year. Played safety as a freshman and receiver as a sophomore, in addition to his punting duties. Has a degree in education.

PERSONAL: Born in Miami Beach, Fla., and lives in Concord, Tenn. Married, wife's name is Teena.

ROSTER DESIGNATIONS

All rookies in NFL rosters will carry the designation "R" under the heading of NFL experience. Rookies are players who have never attended an NFL training camp previously. Players with the "1" (one) designation are first-year players who have been at a training camp previously but did not play in three regular-season games and thus did not qualify as a second year player. Only players with the "R" designation are eligible for rookie honors.

KELLAR, MARK
Running Back

Northern Illinois
Ht: 6-0, Wt: 225

Born: 7-17-52
2nd Year (D6-74)

PRO: Was drafted by the Vikings on the sixth round in 1974 but chose to play in the WFL, playing with the Chicago Wind/Fire in 1974 and 1975. Was leading the league in touchdowns in 1974 before he broke his leg. Gained 25 yards rushing and caught two passes in three regular-season games for the Vikings before suffering a cracked bone in his ankle and winding up on the injured reserve list. In the pre-season, he was second on the club in rushing (31 carries, 103 yards, 2 TD's) and caught 10 passes for 52 yards.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Northern Illinois. Rushed for 3,750 yards and scored 32 touchdowns in his career. Has a degree in business administration.

PERSONAL: Native of Chicago, Ill., and lives in DeKalb, Ill., in the off-season. Married, wife's name is Peggy.

GAMES: 1976 (3)

KRAUSE, PAUL
Free Safety

IOWA
Ht: 6-3, Wt: 205

Born: 2-19-42
14th Year (T-68)

PRO: Krause's two interceptions in 1976 gave him a career total of 76, three behind leader Emlen Tunnell on the all-time list. Has averaged nearly six interceptions a year in his career — with the high points being 12 as a rookie at Washington in 1964 and 10 (a Viking record) with Minnesota in 1975. Made 53 tackles in 1976. Redskins traded Krause to the Vikings for Marlin McKeever and a seventh round draft choice in 1968. He was a second-round draft choice of the Redskins in 1964. He has played in eight Pro Bowls.

COLLEGE: Played wide receiver and defensive back at Iowa, making the All-Big Ten team. Was co-captain along with Viking teammate Wally Hilgenberg on Coach Jerry Burns's 1963 team. Also lettered in baseball and considered a pro career until he injured his shoulder. Majored in physical education.

PERSONAL: Native of Flint, Mich., and resides in Lakeville, Minn. Business is land and cattle. Paul and his wife, Pam, have three children.

LEE, BOB
Quarterback

Pacific
Ht: 6-2, Wt: 195

Born: 8-7-45
9th Year (FA-75)

PRO: Was the No. 2 man to Fran Tarkenton in 1976, starting against the Steelers when Tarkenton was hurt and appearing in five other games — including the Super Bowl. Completed 7 of 9 passes against Oakland for 81 yards and a touchdown. Was drafted by the Vikings on the 16th round in 1969 and was a part-time starter until being traded (along with Lonnie Warwick) to Atlanta in 1973 for Bob Berry and a No. 1 draft choice. His biggest year was with the Falcons in 1973. Became a free agent after the 1974 season and was signed by the Vikings.

COLLEGE: Set five school passing and punting records at Pacific. Started his career at Arizona State but transferred to City College of San Francisco, where he played in the same backfield with O.J. Simpson. Has a bachelor of science and a master's degree in education from Pacific.

PERSONAL: Native of Columbus, Ohio, and lives in San Francisco in the off-season. Works in the real estate and furniture design business. Married, wife's name is Janice.

MARSHALL, JIM
Defensive End

Ohio State
Ht: 6-4, Wt: 240

Born: 12-30-37
18th Year (T-61)

PRO: Set two NFL records in 1976 — most consecutive games played (236) and most games played with one team (224). Has started every regular-season and post-season game the Vikings have ever played. Holds the NFL record for most opponents' fumbles recovered (26). Didn't recover a fumble in 1976 but had five quarterback sacks and made 52 tackles. Played one year in Canada before joining the Cleveland Browns in 1960 as their No. 4 draft choice. After playing in 12 consecutive games with the Browns, he was traded to the Vikings (along with Jim Prestel, Dick Grecni, Jamie Caleb, Billy Gault and Paul Dickson) for 2nd and 11th draft choices in 1961. Despite being weakened by encephalitis, Marshall started the Vikings' opener and hasn't missed a start since. He is captain of the Vikings' defensive unit.

COLLEGE: All-American and All-Conference at Ohio State. Also lettered twice in track. Majored in psychology, biology and science.

PERSONAL: Native of Danville, Ky., and lives in Bloomington, Minn. Jim and his wife, Anita, have two children.

MARTIN, AMOS
Linebacker

Louisville
Ht: 6-3, Wt: 228

Born: 1-30-49
6th Year (D6-72)

PRO: Played in every regular-season and post-season game, primarily on special teams. Started at middle linebacker in the NFC championship game, in place of the injured Jeff Siemon. Has been used primarily at the middle spot, but has played the two outside positions as well.

COLLEGE: Played linebacker most of his career, although he was shifted to guard one year because of shoulder problems that were corrected by surgery after the season. Was named all-conference in 1971. Has a degree in sociology and physical education.

PERSONAL: Name is Anthony . . . Amos is a nickname. He and his wife, Edythe, have three children.

McCLANAHAN, BRENT
Running Back

Arizona State
Ht: 5-10, Wt: 202

Born: 9-21-50
5th Year (D5-73)

PRO: Started every game but one in 1976, rushing for 382 yards (his best as a pro) and catching 40 passes — ranking 13th in the NFC in that category. Only two running backs (one being Chuck Foreman) in the NFC caught more passes last year. As a starter, got relief from his kickoff return duties of the three previous years. Rushed 20 times for 101 yards against Washington in the divisional playoffs — his first 100-plus effort as a pro.

COLLEGE: Won three letters at Arizona State and was named to the all-conference team. College major was agri-business.

PERSONAL: Native of Bakersfield, Calif. Returned to school at Tempe, Ariz., in the off-season.

MULLANEY, MARK
Defensive End

Colorado State
Ht: 6-5, Wt: 245

Born: 4-3-53
3rd Year (D1-75)

PRO: Started the regular-season opener for Carl Eller but suffered a sprained ankle that limited his effectiveness for a while and caused him to miss two games. Played in all the others — primarily on short-yardage situations and on special teams. As a defensive fill-in, had 3 sacks, 2 recovered fumbles and caused a fumble. Also blocked a conversion.

COLLEGE: Played defensive line as a sophomore, then was shifted to offensive tackle, where he played his last two seasons.

Was named team's most outstanding lineman twice. Major was social science.

PERSONAL: Native of Denver, Colo., and resides there in the off-season. He is single.

RASHAD, AHMAD
Wide Receiver

Oregon
Ht: 6-2, Wt: 200

Born: 11-19-49
5th Year (T-76)

PRO: His 53 receptions in 1976 not only were a personal best but set a club record for wide receivers. Biggest day was nine receptions for 93 yards against his former Seattle teammates. Acquired from the Seahawks just before the start of the regular season for a fourth-round draft choice. Moved in as a starter in the fourth regular-season game and started every one thereafter. Was a first-round draft choice of St. Louis in 1972 and was traded to Buffalo for Dennis Shaw after the 1973 season. Played out his option in Buffalo (after missing the 1975 season with a knee injury) and signed with Seattle.

COLLEGE: As Bobby Moore (before changing his name for religious reasons), set 14 Oregon records . . . including most touchdowns (36), most yards rushing (2,306) and most receptions (131). All-American as a senior; all-conference three consecutive years. Majored in education.

PERSONAL: Born in Portland, Ore., and lives in Rancho Palos Verdes, Calif. Went on NFL-USO tour of military bases for the second time. Ahmad and his wife, Tillie, have one daughter.

TARKENTON, FRAN
Quarterback

Georgia
Ht: 6-0, Wt: 185

Born: 2-3-40
17th Year (T-72)

PRO: Now holds all the major NFL career passing records — attempts (5,637), completions (3,186), yards (41,801), touchdowns (308). In 1976, his attempts (412) completions (255) and percentage (61.9) all were the second-highest of his career and his interceptions (8) were the second-lowest. Set a club record during the season by throwing 155 consecutive passes without an interception. Completed 84 percent of his passes against Seattle, a club record, and threw 46 passes against the Bears, also a record. Had only 1.9 percent of his passes intercepted, another team mark. Failed to start against Pittsburgh because of a rib injury — the first time in his career he failed to start a game because of injury. Has rushed for more yards (3,669) than any quarterback in NFL history. Was a third-round draft choice of the Vikings in 1961 and was traded in 1967 to the Giants for a first and second draft choice that year (Clinton Jones and Bob Grim), a first in 1968 (Ron Yary) and a second in 1969 (Ed White). Came back to the Vikings in 1972 for Norm Snead, Grim, Vince Clements, a first-round choice in 1972 and a second-round choice in 1973.

COLLEGE: All-American quarterback at Georgia. Also lettered in baseball. Has a degree in business administration.

PERSONAL: Native of Richmond, Va., and lives in Atlanta, Ga., in the off-season. Chairman of the board of Behavioral Systems, Inc. Also did commentary for NBC television. Francis and his wife, Elaine, have three children.
